Praying Against the Spiritual Evil For the Children of Our Communities

Heavenly Father,

If we are truthful with ourselves, we must then each confess that the day of decision here.

Will we as parents, as grandparents and members of our communities: stand by and watch as the children that You, Lord, have placed in our care and under our watch; as they are being sucked into the vortex of deception, or will we now, that there is an awakening to the truth of what is taking place around us, stand up to the wickedness being revealed?

For generations, Lord, we have slumbered while evil gained footholds across all avenues of life, even within the body of Your church as witnessed in amount of time to worship You that we want to set aside. We have watched as You have been banned from the schools, and the halls of government and we claim that don't understand what we have done because we won't accept responsibility for placing our trust in man rather than in You!

Your servant, Voddie Baucham once stated: "We cannot continue to send our children to Caesar for their education and be surprised when they come home as Romans."

Heavenly Father; in these days where around every corner is a predator, we pray that there also would stand a guard of angels. There are many factors today that keep people from doing the right thing and the greatest of these is their lack of the fear of the Lord.

Many are those who are more fearful of what man can do, fearful of not being accepted, and are wanting to find security in- all the wrong beliefs. We lift them up to You, Lord, and in intercession, ask for Your guidance to help them by shedding light into the darkness they have embraced, especially our young parents who are easily led astray because of what they have been taught. They believe they must put their trust in self rather than the Lord

Heavenly Father; great is Your Word, and it is true that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. May the gift of discernment fall upon Your church and she, go then, and stand in the gap. Amen
