Praying Against the Spiritual Evil For the Children of Our Communities

Heavenly Father,

Around every corner is hidden a predator who uses the darkness to lure our children into their snare!

For a long time now our communities have let down their guard and our vigilance has fallen in protecting those in our homes and in our communities.

Lord, crafty is our enemy, venomous is his bite, no mercy does he show and he is more than willing to consume and destroy any and all truth, love and hope that is shown to our children outside of our care.

Lord, you are great, powerful, and you are what each of us needs, and with you, all of our needs will be realized.

Lord, we pray for the gift of discernment for our children, that they may recognize right and wrong, righteous and evil, and that they may gain the wisdom to respond righteously to the temptations presented to them. Lord, give them the courage to turn from evil and the wickedness that promises freedom to them- but is a trap disguised as something sweet and good.

Lord, protect them when the predators approach, when the lion roars, and from the shadows come all manner of darkness. Lord, help us to be an image of light on their path so that they can see the fruit of our faith and grow in theirs. May it be Lord that they may turn to your sons and daughters to seek the truth, to hear the truth and to meet the Truth: Jesus Christ.

Heavenly Father: forgive us that we even find ourselves in this situation, awaken each of us, awaken the watchman, awaken your church!

In the name of He who is King of kings and Lord of lords we pray. Amen
