Praying Against the Spiritual Evil For the Children of Our Communities

Each year people and organizations around the country participate in Transgender Awareness Week to help increase understanding about transgender people and the issues members of the community face.

November 20th: to honor all those whose lives were lost to anti-transgender violence that year.

In the box below are dates that will call for remembrance and celebration of those who chose to turn from God and live lives that were and are ungodly. These lives are living reminders of what sin can lead us to do: that, which is unnatural, and these then are celebrating the sin they have chosen to embrace.

Heavenly Father, forgive us.

As a nation we chose our comforts and pleasures over our children. Today the fruits of our choices come home to us as we watch our children being pulled into the void where they neither believe in You or the hope of life in Christ Jesus. They would rather forget their pain; that which when endured will make them stronger; instead they would rather turn over their lives to someone who only pretends to care for their needs, or pretends to want to see them succeed in this life.

This is the great delusion that the enemy of all- has given birth to.

Lord, forgive us for not standing in the gap, for not speaking truth, for not teaching our children that You are Lord and there is no other like You.

Lord, we are watching our children sacrifice themselves and they do not even feel the heat from the fires as they approach the pit they are so wrapped up in the lie that they refuse to want to hear that there is a truth!

Father, forgive us, may the cries of the children be heard by us as clearly as they are being heard by You.

Lord, they have exchanged Your truth for a lie, and now worship and serve created things (unnatural,) rather than You, their Creator.

Lord, deliver them from evil, stir their hearts to seek Your truth, and give them Your eyes to see and Your ears to hear, and help embrace the truth when it comes to them no matter how hard it may be to face. These things we ask in the name of Jesus. Amen
