Praying Against the Spiritual Evil For the Children of Our Communities

O friends, can you bear the thought that you may have helped to drag others down to hell! Christ has loved you and pardoned your sins and will you push others downward?

And yet, if you are inconsistent, and especially if you are cold and lukewarm in your faith, you are doing it.

“Well,” says one, “I don’t do much good, but I so no hurt.” That is impossibility. You must be either doing good or evil.

There is no border land between truth and sin; a man must be either on land or in the water; and you are either serving God or serving Satan; each day you are increasing your Master’s kingdom, or else diminishing it.

I cannot bear the thought that any of you should be employed in Satan’s camp.
Charles Spurgeon in his sermon: How Saints May Help the Devil

Heavenly Father,

We now that we are to seek the courage and boldness to stand against those things that are contrary to you.

By the seeking of an increase in our faith, by the testing of where we are walking, and of the attitude that we have on the journey: we will by our actions or lack of them be a help mate to you, or a hindrance to your kingdom.

Lord, may we be found seeking you as you have said in your word that we are to-“Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. Matthew 7:7 (NLT) This comes as guidance for not only the receiving of salvation but the strengthening that is called for in each day’s timeline of events.

Lord, as the days grow shorter and the load seems heavier; may we be found seeking your face, and the strength that comes from you. The wisdom that will lead us not into temptation but from it, may we find within ourselves the boldness that filled you when you cleared the temple that day, and may we speak from our hearts as you did -of the wonders of God’s love.

We all need to hear the truth every day and no truth is ever spoken that does not give glory to God and you Lord; our risen Lord, the bearer of life, the guide on our way, and the only hope of truth that can free any one man-woman -or child- who will believe in the name of Jesus- who is the Father’s Christ, and savior to all whom will believe.

Praise be to God, for what was, what is and what is yet to be! Amen

KINSHIPRADIO.ORG

Dear Friends,

Tickets are now on sale for Kinship Radio's Day for Women. The day-long conference takes place on May 2 at Hosanna Lutheran Church in Mankato.

Our special guest is singer-songwriter Laura Story. Laura also authored the best-selling book, When God Doesn't Fix It. The book's subtitle says it all: "Lessons You Never Wanted to Learn, Truths You Can't Live Without."

Laura's testimony will help inspire you to find "Joy in Every Season" amid life's unfulfilled promises. And if life is going well, her story will encourage you to inspire others with the hope in Jesus you have.

In addition to hearing from Laura throughout the day, there will be breakout sessions and workshops focusing on your home, health, and heart. Your registration includes lunch.

The Kinship Radio Day for Women Conference is made possible through listeners like you, and our friends, including our platinum sponsors: Preferred Printing Company and Joslyn Manske State Farm Insurance Agent.

Get your tickets today before they're gone! We look forward to seeing you at Kinship Radio's Day for Women Conference with Laura Story, on May 2 at Hosanna Lutheran Church in Mankato.

Sincerely,

Your friends from Kinship Radio

P.S. Don't forget to check out our online store! We've got some fun merchandise from the conference that would make great Mother's Day gifts, birthday surprises, or even a little something special just for you.
